

A HEAVY BURDEN

A Bad Back Makes Life Miserable For Many Norwich People.

A bad back is a heavy burden. A burden at night when bedtime comes. Just as bothersome in the morning. Ever try Doan's Kidney Pills for it? Know they are for kidney back-ache—and for other kidney ills? If you don't, some Norwich people do.

Read a case of it: John Connell, 32 Forest St., Norwich, says: "I strained my back and my kidneys were affected. Nothing helped me until I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at N. D. Sevin & Son's Drug Store. They acted like a charm and I have had no kidney trouble since."

Price 50c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Connell had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

New London County NORTH FRANKLIN

Social Affairs of the Week—Winners at Whist—Day Off for Station Agents.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Rockwood and daughter, Florence, Mrs. Fred H. Race and Miss Grace Fink, attended the Grange meeting in Colchester Tuesday night. Miss Helen Comager was a Norwich visitor Wednesday.

Miss Henrietta Comager of Niantic was the guest Thanksgiving of her sister, Miss Helen Comager. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Rogers and daughter spent Thanksgiving with Mr. Rogers of Norwich.

Miss Lydia Johnson was a Thanksgiving guest of Mrs. Hyde Johnson of Norwich. William Little spent Thanksgiving with his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Little of Lebanon.

Entertain Eighteen Friends. Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Clark entertained eighteen friends at their home Saturday evening. Whist and other games were played. Sandwiches, cake, fruit and coffee were served by the hostess.

Mrs. A. T. Browning and daughter Myrtle, is spending Thanksgiving with her mother, Mrs. Harold Riley, of Somerville, Mass.

Mr. O. Lewis Johnson and Mrs. Albert Stiles were Norwich visitors Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert White and daughters Celia and Mildred called on Mr. Chamberlain of North Windham Sunday.

Four Tables of Whist. Mr. Albert Ward entertained a party of friends at his home Tuesday evening. Four tables of whist were played, prizes given, ladies first to Mrs. Byron White; second, Miss Ruth Howland; gentlemen's first, Byron White; second, Reuben Manning. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

Station Agent's Brief Vacation. Station Agent Heath spent Thanksgiving in Pease Lake, R. I., the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Potter. Mr. Rushman of Willimantic had charge of the station in Mr. Heath's absence.

Mr. and Mrs. William Smith entertained on Thanksgiving, Mrs. O. Lewis Johnson and Mrs. Albert Stiles.

The Ladies Aid society met Thursday with Mrs. Fred H. Race. Fancy aprons and other lines of work were taken up. Thirty-three ladies were in attendance.

HAMBURG

Mrs. Hayden Reynolds was taken to Dr. Sweet last week for treatment of her foot.

Mrs. Fred King of Saybrook was a week-end guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Martin.

Miss Marjorie Lord is attending a dancing class in Saybrook.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Griswold of Guilford were visitors at C. M. Peck's recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Ludwick Hill are visiting friends in Hartford and Elmwood.

Mr. and Mrs. James Smith of Bridgeport were guests at Red Gables last Sunday.

C. R. Wood entertained a friend from White Plains, New York, last week.

ECZEMA ON LITTLE GIRL'S FACE

Very Inflamed and Red Looking. Itched and Burned Badly. Did Not Sleep Well. Used Cuticura Soap and Ointment. Face Cleared.

36 Windsor Ave., East Lynn, Mass.—"My little girl's face broke out first as a pimple and she scratched it causing it to spread all over her face as a fine rash. There was so much itching on her chin and forehead that she was very restless and red looking. I thought she would be cured for life. I thought it was eczema so I tried Cuticura and it made her sleep well and it made her steady. I tried all kinds of ointments and also different salves then finally I thought of Cuticura Soap and Ointment and decided to try them. After using them a few times I was well pleased so I used them continually for about two weeks. Her face cleared and now you would never know she had had any skin trouble." (Signed) Mrs. B. Scores, August 5, 1914.

Sample Each Free by Mail. Although Cuticura Soap (36c) and Cuticura Ointment (36c) are sold everywhere you may try them before you buy them. Free sample each with 33-p. Skin Book on request. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston."

LETTERS FROM TWO STATES

New London County CENTRAL VILLAGE

Mill Running Evenings To Fill Army Order—Small Boy Gets Bean in His Nose—Personal Items.

The entertainment which was to have been given Saturday evening for the street light fund has been postponed.

Mrs. Olive Preston of Elmville was a visitor at James Pellet's Friday. Earl Russell Bragg of Yale has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bragg.

Miss Mary McRoy has returned to her home in Providence, having spent several weeks here caring for Mrs. John Shelley, who remains ill. Mrs. John Rood of Mooseup is assisting at the Shelley home at present.

Attended Funeral. William Simmons, Judge John E. Prior, Mr. F. Loring, Mrs. George H. Loring, Mrs. Arnold E. Mathewson and Mrs. L. Howard Cross, were in Plainfield, Saturday afternoon to attend the funeral of Judge Waldo Tillinghast.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bragg, John Greenhalgh and Stuart Ellsworth were in Carleton Place, Saturday. Thomas Keene of Providence spent Sunday at George Potvin's.

Miss Rose E. Seguin, who attends the Central Village Conservatory of Music, in Boston, is at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Israel Seguin.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Howard Cross spent Sunday at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Judson Gardner, who has been entertaining her mother and nephew from New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Mathewson spent Thursday at the home of their grandson, J. Arthur Atwood, in Norwich.

Guests at Brooklyn. Mr. and Mrs. William Loring, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Loring spent Thanksgiving at the home of Mrs. Loring's brother, Clarke Lawton in Brooklyn.

Master Ivan Leclair, who has been spending a few weeks with his grandparents, in East Greenwich, R. I., returned home Sunday.

Robert Loring has been confined to his home, having a throat trouble. Ernest Tillinghast of Princess Bay, Long Island, has been the guest of relatives, having been called here on account of the death of his brother, Judge Waldo Tillinghast.

Mr. and Mrs. William Loring, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Loring spent Thanksgiving at the home of Mrs. Loring's brother, Clarke Lawton in Brooklyn.

Master Ivan Leclair, who has been spending a few weeks with his grandparents, in East Greenwich, R. I., returned home Sunday.

Robert Loring has been confined to his home, having a throat trouble. Ernest Tillinghast of Princess Bay, Long Island, has been the guest of relatives, having been called here on account of the death of his brother, Judge Waldo Tillinghast.

DAYVILLE

How and Where Local Residents Spent Thanksgiving—Gingras-Berthiaume Wedding.

Caleb Blanchard and Miss Mary Blanchard are spending the week at Groton.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wakefield and son George were in Norwich for Thanksgiving.

Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Greig were Thanksgiving guests of Angus Park and family at Hanover.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Bidwell were guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Woodard of Norwich.

Judge Sabin S. Russell and wife were guests of Mrs. Fanny P. Fish of Mystic, mother of Mrs. Russell.

Mrs. C. A. Russell spent Thursday with Mrs. Clinton W. Atwood of Danvers.

Merrill C. Bennett of Brown university spent the week with Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Burnett.

Mrs. Ellen Williams has returned from a visit at Valley Falls, N. Y. Samuel Marchant is moving into one of the new houses at the carbarn.

Walter Comings was in Woonsocket, R. I., for the holiday.

Miss Maude Street is ill with the grip at her home.

Celebrated Birthday. Mrs. William Darrow celebrated her birthday Tuesday at the home of her mother, Mrs. Rufus D. Curtis.

Miss Estelle and Lena Tripp are home from their schools and spent Thanksgiving with their grandmother.

Gingras-Berthiaume. Wilfred Gingras and Amelia Berthiaume were married in Groton, Monday, by Rev. Ignatius Kost at St. Joseph's church.

W. P. Kelley and family spent Thanksgiving in Ballouville with Mr. Kelley's sister, Mrs. Helen Tucker.

Rev. John W. Wright and Miss Mary Kelley attended the Yale-Harvard game.

Charles Fink has bought a house lot of W. P. Kelley and will soon build.

Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Greig were week-end visitors in Boston, attending the Harvard game.

Wolf & Goldfaden have dissolved partnership; the business will be carried on by Mr. Wolf.

W. C. Darrow and Leon Blanchard were in Willimantic as witnesses in a law suit against the N. Y., N. H. and H. R. R.

BROOKLYN

Benjamin Newton Fined for Intoxication—Ladies Aid Society Serves Supper.

Benjamin Newton was brought before Justice J. E. Thurber on Thursday morning charged with intoxication, to which he entered a plea of guilty and was sentenced to jail for ten days and to pay a fine of ten dollars and costs.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel T. Cooper recently had as their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Newton and their son, Aaron Cooper, with his wife and child.

Frederick E. Miller has moved into the house he purchased at the corner of Main and Elm streets.

Mrs. Mary Pike, who occupied the house, has moved to the one vacated by Mr. Miller.

Chicken Pie Supper. The Ladies Aid society of the Baptist church gave a chicken pie supper in the church vestry Friday evening.

Owing to the storm the attendance was not as large as it would have been had the evening been bright. The ladies were well pleased with the results of the supper.

Alvin J. Hargrave, who has been in the employ of Mrs. William M. Isaac for some time as chauffeur, took her limousine Monday to New York, where he is to remain for the winter.

On Holiday Trip. Rev. G. F. Genung, D. D. and Mrs. Genung, are with their daughter, Mrs. Charles Minott, in Greenfield, Mass., to call on Professor John F. Genung, D. D., at Amherst.

Mr. and Mrs. Vim R. Franklin are visiting relatives in Waterbury.

Mr. and Mrs. William R. Pond and daughter, Mrs. William T. D. Pond, are on their week vacation.

SOUTH KILLINGLY

Crimson Rambler Roses Bloom on Thanksgiving Day—Big Buck Shot.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Woodman of Danvers were Sunday visitors to Mr. Woodman's parents.

H. M. Burdick is ill with pneumonia.

Several people from this vicinity were in Danvers Friday evening to hear the concert by the Bass Clef club of Norwich.

Neva Barlow has finished work in Danvers and has returned home.

Ruth Dexter who teaches in Ballouville is at home for the holiday.

Thanksgiving Roses. It is rather unusual to see roses at Thanksgiving, but G. W. Barlow is exhibiting some of his crimson rambler.

Shoots a Buck. G. R. Barlow shot a buck Wednesday morning, a fine specimen with beautiful antlers. Mr. Barlow, who has a natural history museum will have the head mounted to add to his collection.

CANTERBURY PLAINS

Medal Contest Won by Alena Larsen—Quilting Bee.

A medal contest was held in the M. P. church Saturday afternoon, Nov. 20, at 2:30 o'clock. The children all spoke very well and were warmly commended for their efforts.

The medal was awarded Alena Larsen. The other children who took part were Alfred Utz, Olive Seltman, Mary Maki, Fred Allen, Elsie Combs, Adelle Lachapelle, Miss Evelyn Christian sang and Pearl Christian gave a recitation, each one being given a souvenir.

Quilting Bee. The Mites society of the M. P. church held a quilting bee at the town hall on Wednesday, Nov. 24. Three quilts were tied, there being nine ladies present. Lunch was served at noon and all had a very social time.

EAST WOODSTOCK

Buildings Wired for Electric Light—Halsey Allen's Funeral.

August Clauson has entered the employ of Dr. George McClellan at Woodstock Hill.

The Congregational chapel and Brick Hall have been wired for electricity. The necessary work was raised by local subscriptions and by the Ladies Aid society.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Lindeman attended the funeral of Miss M. Ellen Tatem in Putnam.

Everett E. May spent Thanksgiving in South Manchester with Charles E. Bunch and family. Mrs. May is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Bunch for a week or two.

Funeral of Halsey Allen. Mrs. L. H. Lindeman attended the funeral of Halsey Allen in Rockville, last Sunday. Mr. Allen was a former resident of Woodstock, but for the past 35 years had been superintendent of the Belding Bros. silk mill. He is survived by his wife and son Charles.

A number of family reunions were held on Thanksgiving. Charles E. Pike and L. H. Lipdeman have recently shingled their houses.

G. L. Upham entertained their children and grandchildren on Thanksgiving day.

Miss Clara Eddy is attendant at the public library during the absence of Mrs. E. E. May, the librarian.

WINDHAM

Chappell Summer Home Closed—Thanksgiving Hospitality—Illustrated Lecture.

There will be an illustrated lecture on Japan in the Congregational church tomorrow evening.

Miss Mary D. Little left Tuesday to spend Thanksgiving in Brooklyn, N. Y. Mrs. C. A. Russell spent Thursday with Mrs. Clinton W. Atwood of Danvers.

Merrill C. Bennett of Brown university spent the week with Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Burnett.

Mrs. Ellen Williams has returned from a visit at Valley Falls, N. Y. Samuel Marchant is moving into one of the new houses at the carbarn.

Walter Comings was in Woonsocket, R. I., for the holiday.

Miss Maude Street is ill with the grip at her home.

Celebrated Birthday. Mrs. William Darrow celebrated her birthday Tuesday at the home of her mother, Mrs. Rufus D. Curtis.

Miss Estelle and Lena Tripp are home from their schools and spent Thanksgiving with their grandmother.

Gingras-Berthiaume. Wilfred Gingras and Amelia Berthiaume were married in Groton, Monday, by Rev. Ignatius Kost at St. Joseph's church.

W. P. Kelley and family spent Thanksgiving in Ballouville with Mr. Kelley's sister, Mrs. Helen Tucker.

Rev. John W. Wright and Miss Mary Kelley attended the Yale-Harvard game.

Charles Fink has bought a house lot of W. P. Kelley and will soon build.

Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Greig were week-end visitors in Boston, attending the Harvard game.

Wolf & Goldfaden have dissolved partnership; the business will be carried on by Mr. Wolf.

W. C. Darrow and Leon Blanchard were in Willimantic as witnesses in a law suit against the N. Y., N. H. and H. R. R.

BROOKLYN

Benjamin Newton Fined for Intoxication—Ladies Aid Society Serves Supper.

Benjamin Newton was brought before Justice J. E. Thurber on Thursday morning charged with intoxication, to which he entered a plea of guilty and was sentenced to jail for ten days and to pay a fine of ten dollars and costs.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel T. Cooper recently had as their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Newton and their son, Aaron Cooper, with his wife and child.

Frederick E. Miller has moved into the house he purchased at the corner of Main and Elm streets.

Mrs. Mary Pike, who occupied the house, has moved to the one vacated by Mr. Miller.

Chicken Pie Supper. The Ladies Aid society of the Baptist church gave a chicken pie supper in the church vestry Friday evening.

Owing to the storm the attendance was not as large as it would have been had the evening been bright. The ladies were well pleased with the results of the supper.

Alvin J. Hargrave, who has been in the employ of Mrs. William M. Isaac for some time as chauffeur, took her limousine Monday to New York, where he is to remain for the winter.

On Holiday Trip. Rev. G. F. Genung, D. D. and Mrs. Genung, are with their daughter, Mrs. Charles Minott, in Greenfield, Mass., to call on Professor John F. Genung, D. D., at Amherst.

Mr. and Mrs. Vim R. Franklin are visiting relatives in Waterbury.

Mr. and Mrs. William R. Pond and daughter, Mrs. William T. D. Pond, are on their week vacation.

SOUTH KILLINGLY

Crimson Rambler Roses Bloom on Thanksgiving Day—Big Buck Shot.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Woodman of Danvers were Sunday visitors to Mr. Woodman's parents.

H. M. Burdick is ill with pneumonia.

Several people from this vicinity were in Danvers Friday evening to hear the concert by the Bass Clef club of Norwich.

Neva Barlow has finished work in Danvers and has returned home.

Ruth Dexter who teaches in Ballouville is at home for the holiday.

Thanksgiving Roses. It is rather unusual to see roses at Thanksgiving, but G. W. Barlow is exhibiting some of his crimson rambler.

Shoots a Buck. G. R. Barlow shot a buck Wednesday morning, a fine specimen with beautiful antlers. Mr. Barlow, who has a natural history museum will have the head mounted to add to his collection.

CANTERBURY PLAINS

Medal Contest Won by Alena Larsen—Quilting Bee.

A medal contest was held in the M. P. church Saturday afternoon, Nov. 20, at 2:30 o'clock. The children all spoke very well and were warmly commended for their efforts.

The medal was awarded Alena Larsen. The other children who took part were Alfred Utz, Olive Seltman, Mary Maki, Fred Allen, Elsie Combs, Adelle Lachapelle, Miss Evelyn Christian sang and Pearl Christian gave a recitation, each one being given a souvenir.

Quilting Bee. The Mites society of the M. P. church held a quilting bee at the town hall on Wednesday, Nov. 24. Three quilts were tied, there being nine ladies present. Lunch was served at noon and all had a very social time.

EAST WOODSTOCK

Buildings Wired for Electric Light—Halsey Allen's Funeral.

August Clauson has entered the employ of Dr. George McClellan at Woodstock Hill.

The Congregational chapel and Brick Hall have been wired for electricity. The necessary work was raised by local subscriptions and by the Ladies Aid society.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Lindeman attended the funeral of Miss M. Ellen Tatem in Putnam.

Everett E. May spent Thanksgiving in South Manchester with Charles E. Bunch and family. Mrs. May is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Bunch for a week or two.

Funeral of Halsey Allen. Mrs. L. H. Lindeman attended the funeral of Halsey Allen in Rockville, last Sunday. Mr. Allen was a former resident of Woodstock, but for the past 35 years had been superintendent of the Belding Bros. silk mill. He is survived by his wife and son Charles.

A number of family reunions were held on Thanksgiving. Charles E. Pike and L. H. Lipdeman have recently shingled their houses.

G. L. Upham entertained their children and grandchildren on Thanksgiving day.

Miss Clara Eddy is attendant at the public library during the absence of Mrs. E. E. May, the librarian.

CANTERBURY GREEN

Union Thanksgiving Service—Liberal Donations to Pastor—Norwich Speaker at Prayer Meeting.

The people of the three Canterbury churches, the Green, the Plain and Westminister, were united in their Thanksgiving service on the evening of Thanksgiving day when the union service was held at Westminister, of which Rev. T. E. Davies has lately become the resident pastor.

Speedi preached the sermon. This is the third union Thanksgiving service, the first having been held at the Green two years ago. Last year's service was held at the Plain about midway between Westminister and the Green. Next year the service will be held again at the Green.

Practice for Christmas music will begin next Sunday.

To Report from Convention. At the Christian Endeavor meeting Sunday evening at 7 o'clock Miss Edith Williams will tell of the New London conference which with Miss Elsie Havens attended last Saturday. The meeting is a missionary one.

The ladies will meet Tuesday with Mrs. Henry Randall from 2 to 5 p. m.

Gifts to Pastor. The people of the church in a most hearty fashion have been giving the pastor special cause for Thanksgiving by the assembling of gifts of various sorts and sizes, and suitable not only for the parsonage but also for the pastor's pocketbook.

These donations were planned for Friday afternoon, but owing to weather forecasts were begun earlier in the week and have developed into a continuous performance from day to day since a very happy and substantial way of showing loyalty to the church and the preacher.

Speaker from Norwich. Mr. Chapman of Norwich was present at the midweek prayer meeting last Thursday evening and gave a very interesting report from the state Sunday school convention at Stamford.

The subject of this week's Thursday meeting was David and Jonathan, II Sam. 18, 20, or True Friendship, Time, 7:30 p. m.

Local Brevities. Mrs. Elmer Richmond has been enjoying two weeks' visit in the city of Washington.

Miss Place has returned to her home in Canterbury very much improved in health.

Mr. and Mrs. Chapman of Norwich spent several days last week with their daughter, Mrs. Fred Safford, making the trip to and from Norwich by carriage.

Mrs. Helen Adams has been for several weeks superintending repairs upon her house on the Green, returning to her son's for Thanksgiving.

Miss Buick was in New London Saturday and also attended the C. E. conference at the First Congregational church there.

EAST THOMPSON

The assistant postmaster, Loren Young, is working in the store.

Vernon Jepson spent Sunday with Rev. O. E. Newton of Vernon.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Huntington spent Thanksgiving with the latter's mother, in Wilsontonville.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Robbins had as guests on Thursday, Mr. and Mrs. Silas Joslin.

Rev. and Mrs. Frank Chamberlain were in Southbridge over Thanksgiving with the former's sister, Mrs. Jerry Moffit.

Miss Fannie Robbins is the guest of her aunt, the Misses Robbins.

The many friends of Rev. Merrick Ransom are pleased to learn that he is much improved in health. Mrs. Ransom remains about the same.

EAST KILLINGLY

Miss Annie Brown was a recent guest of Mrs. Mary J. Law in Providence.

Mr. and Mrs. William Yare spent Thanksgiving with Mr. Yare's parents in Stafford Springs.

Danielson Tuesday.

Mrs. S. B. Shippee visited relatives in Danvers Thursday.

Mrs. Daniel Cutler and Miss Olive Aldrich had been visiting John Flood and family in Bridgeton, R. I., for a few days.

Mrs. Sarah Eaton has been the guest of Brookline friends recently.

Albert H. Searles made a business trip to Providence Monday.